

“The introduction of ‘HyperMotion Technology’ will make games more realistic, challenging and enjoyable,” said Jens Thiele, Head of FIFA’s Development Department. “FIFA 22 is the best football video game ever created and the level of fidelity seen in FIFA 22 makes it the most authentic football simulation available on the market. It was also important for us to deliver even more entertaining gameplay and thrilling action.” With the introduction of ‘HyperMotion Technology’, the FIFA World Player of the Year is now set to be the best player to ever play the game, further adding to the immense success of the franchise. FIFA is a foot ball (soccer) game which was first released in September 1992. Since then, this game has been played by millions of people worldwide. It has consistently been one of the bestselling PC games since its inception. How does it work? EA SPORTS is using the GAMEBASE/Game Engine to power FIFA the 21st century. What features are there? There are so many amazing features it's hard to know where to start but here are just some of the key features you'll find on FIFA the 21st Century. Ball physics FIFA is the only real football game to have true ball physics. The refs have finally got what they've been waiting for by using a different approach to those real world physics. FIFA has used the science to make the players more realistically react to the ball, you'll see the ball come alive and react to a player's movement. AI The AI in FIFA was always at the heart of the game. FIFA 21 has continued that amazing tradition of the best AI in a foot ball game. The new data driven AI sees the game become ever more intelligent and players are freed up to play in the way they want. Audio The audio in FIFA over the years has been simply amazing. Improvements have been made to the graphical sound engine that lets players at the next level listen for that tell tale sign of an attack. Players can also hear and understand the crowd. The audio in FIFA is as important as the action and the game, thanks to the amazing work of Tobias Strychalski and Fernando Cardoso. Web 2.0 Integration EA SPORTS is now integrating Web 2.0 features into the game to create a smarter, more immersive experience. When you're in game, you'll be able to interact with the game more naturally by uploading your own custom teams to the online leaderboards, and by creating your own online and in game banter on the EA SPORTS Pro Zone. Signing on FIFA is the first foot ball game to include real world player names and it has been a huge hit with the fans. The new game has seen more players come out and embrace EA SPORTS. Social Community is an important aspect of FIFA. With the new version of the game, you can play with
